"Queen for a Day" Flyer Visits Joshua Tree

Marion Ackerman, member of the exclusive "Queen for a Day Ercoupe Flying Club," was a weekend visitor at the Ray Rees home. The petite brunette pilot, mother of three youngsters, is a niece of Mrs. Rees. Chosen early in 1947 as Queen for a Day by a nationally known radio program Mrs. Ackerman won a course of flying lessons and use of an Ercoupe and airport privileges for a year. She soloed last April and has been an enthusiastic flyer since then.

The Flying Club is limited to ten members and operates from Grand Central Air Terminal at Glendale. Accompanying the flyer to Joshua Tree were her sister, Mrs. Margaret Seeley of Southgate, and Miss Nan McCleary of San Gabriel. The trio of charming visitors declared they like the Joshua Tree air and water.

Keys Case Interests Noted Author

The case of William F. Keys, homesteader in the Joshua Tree National Monument, convicted of manslaughter in 1943 and now serving a nine year sentence, has aroused the interest of Erle Stanley Gardner, famous writer of the Perry Mason mystery tales. According to an article published earlier this month in the Riverside Daily Press, the nationally known author and Harry Steeger, publisher of Argosy and other magazines, plan a series of articles on cases in which there may be some doubt that justice was done. Gardner has asked permission to study the Riverside County records of the Keys case, says the article, with a view to presenting the facts before the contemplated Court of Last Resort in Argosy Magazine.

Recently Erle Stanley Gardner and Harry Steeger were in Joshua Tree and at the Keys Ranch in the Monument conferring with Mrs. William Keys.

Sun Valley Couple Wed in Yuma

Phyllis Ledesma and Robert Kroes, popular young residents of Sun Valley Acres, were united in marriage last Thursday, December 18th, at Yuma, Arizona. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morris, also of Sun Valley. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Atchison at his home in the Arizona city at 2:30 in the afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of the George Ledesmas, early residents of Sun Valley. The groom is the pioneer turkey grower of this area and with his wife will continue to expand his poultry enterprises. Kroes is a veteran of the European Theater in World War II, and was recently elected to the Board of Directors of the Joshua Tree Chamber of Commerce.

After the ceremony the wedding party visited Arizona points of interest and Mexico and Los Angeles, returning to Sun Valley on Sunday, where the newlyweds will occupy their home on the Kroes turkey ranch.

Sun Valley Sends More Turkeys To Market

Another shipment of broad breasted Christmas dinners went to the market early last week from Sun Valley. The flock from Bob Morris ranch was picked up and hauled to the Southern California Turkey Growers plant at Riverside.

Like many other growers in Sun Valley and the National Monument, Morris is planning on increasing his flocks next year. Local turkey raisers are well pleased with the results of this year's efforts when turkey production on a large scale paid off in spite of a few adverse predictions. They have proved beyond doubt that this desert area is the finest in the world for the raising of America's national meat fowl.

Scout Troop No. 75 Prepares for Anniversary

The Lions Club sponsored Troop 75 of the Boy Scouts of America is already making plans for the observance of Scout Sunday on February 8th, 1948, reports Don Van Camp of Yucca Valley, scoutmaster. That will be the 38th anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America.

Special activities will be prepared for Scout week February 6th to the 12th. Among others proposed is the breaking of ground for a Scout clubhouse. Van Camp says that interest is high among the members of the recently chartered troop. He states that the general public will be invited to participate in the ceremonies occurring on Scout Sunday.

Kundert Speaks at Women's Club

Guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Joshua Tree Womens Club on Friday, December 19th, was Balthasar Kundert, well known artist and delineator of the California scene. He told the members that art is not a luxury, but a necessity for better expression and a more complete fulfilling of life's purpose. "We are all artists," said Kundert, "in our own particular work, whether it is a profession or housework." Proper methods for the care of oil paintings were discussed by the artist in a general question period after his formal talk.

President Sarah Mitchell conducted the business meeting preceding the program and Mary Ojala recorded in the absence of the secretary. Mrs. Mitchell read a Desert Christmas Poem by O. D. Thomas. After the Gift Exchange by members sandwiches and coffee were served.

Lions Club Plans Traffic Count

Vehicles using the 29 Palms Highway through the Tri-Valley area will be counted by Lions Club members on each weekend for one month it was decided at the meeting of the Tri-Valley Lions Club at Bouchays in Yucca Valley last Thursday night. It is hoped that by this count officials can be shown the need for widening the entire highway and painting of center lines, plus more adequate maintenance.

Selection of delegates to attend the Mid-Winter Conference of District 4 at Fresno was left to the committee consisting of K. L. Williams, chairman, C. S. Watkins, D. L. Houghton, D. F. Geil, Al Hardesty, W. P. Vance and R. L. McClain.

Reports were received from heads of all committees present.

Sale of Christmas Seals Lagging

The annual campaign of the San Bernardino County Tuberculosis and Health Association carried on throughout San Bernardino County by the sale of Christmas seals is $15,000 short of its goal, stated Mrs. Bertha Lee, Executive Secretary of the association.

Christmas seals mailed to county residents each year during the holiday season furnish funds through this yearly campaign to carry on the extensive tuberculosis case-finding program for the coming year.

While the effort to meet its $40,000 goal officially ends Christmas day it is requested that payment for seals received, be forwarded at a later date if found more convenient.

Santa Claus Comes to Joshua Tree; Greets Youngsters at School Party

The school rooms in Legion Hall were packed to the walls with the small, and not so small, fry of Joshua Tree and their parents last Friday night all eagerly awaiting the moment when Santa Claus would appear to distribute the gifts from the big Christmas tree. The party sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Association, the Womens Club and the Sunday School was a huge success and when Old Saint Nick arrived in all his jovial splendor he was greeted by approving yells from old and young.

Switchboard for Joshua Exchange Installed

The telephone switchboard for the Joshua Tree telephone exchange was installed last week in the home of Gladys Teeter who will manage the local office of the California Water and Telephone Company. The board accommodates 100 local and 6 trunk lines. Installing crews worked from Monday to Friday of last week on the project.

Latest information available indicates that home and business phones may be installed and service begin about the middle of January. Crews have been erecting poles and stringing cables for several weeks.

Until Miss Teeter becomes thoroughly conversant with the intricacies of the system an instructor will be in Joshua Tree to assist her. Applications for service may be made at her office on Desertair just west of Park Boulevard.

Death Claims Thomas Rogers

Thomas Francis Rogers, former New York newspaperman, died at his home in Joshua Tree at 7:15 a.m. last Tuesday, December 16th of bronchial pneumonia. He was 60 years old. A resident of Joshua Tree since May 1946, Rogers was formerly on the staffs of several New York City Newspapers and at one time edited the American Legion Magazine. During World War I he was a correspondent and later served in the Armed Forces.

Thomas Rogers is survived by his wife, Irene, two sons Thomas F. Rogers, Jr., and Paul Rogers, his father and a sister, Alice in New York, and a granddaughter, Nancy.

Funeral services were held at the Banning Catholic Church at 10 a.m. last Friday. Burial was in the Legion plot in Sunny Slope cemetery at Banning. The flag used in the graveside services was presented by Dr. D. C. Williams of the Joshua Tree Chapel.

Keglers Wanted for Local Teams

If you enjoy strikes and spares, or even a few near misses, the Sportsmans Club wants you on the women's or men's bowling teams for some winter competition. Several Joshua Tree couples who Recorded Christmas music greeted the children and their Mothers and Dads as they arrived, and everyone participated in singing the first number on the holiday program, "The First Noel." "Welcome" was recited by Joan Papendick. The primary grades then sang "Down the Chimney," after which Jimmy Hendrick told "What I'd Rather Be." Clement Moore, Annalee Beard, Helen McNeill and Donna Robertson recited "A Visit from St. Nicholas" and Damon Wheeler sang a solo, "Praise Him." A recitation, "Regular Fellows," was given by Terry Decker, Jimmy Snyder, Robert Norman, Jimmy Evans, Duane Gehle, Tom Robertson, Monty Norris, Troy Clark, Larry Cotton and Gary Hoover. Almira Miller, Carol DeLand, Betty Robertson and Bobby Sanders told of their "Wishes." The entire school sang "Away In a Manger" and Becky Bryant presented "A Birthday Wish for Jesus," Geraldine Hunt was next with a poem, "Song," by Lydia Ward, and everyone joined in singing "Joy to the World."

A pantomime prepared by Mrs. H. K. Lee was staged with the following cast of characters; Mary, Shirley Carrico; Joseph, Lynn Fletcher; Angels, Nancy Marble and Dorothy Duvall; Shepherds, Verna Mae Yawn, James Lafferty and Damon Wheeler; Wise Men, Billy Brown, Warren Marble and Michael Stumfall; readers were Janette Evans, Donna Robertson and David McCracken, and soloist Mrs. Antoinette Kirch.

After Norma Ojala had recited "Jolly Santa" the entire audience sang "Jingle Bells." Santa bounded into the hall as the last notes of the song died away and he had gifts for all the young ones, and stockings filled with candy, nuts and fruit. Later the school pupils held their own gift exchange.

In charge of the program presented by the youngsters were Miss Gertrude Hagum and Mrs. H. K. Lee. In addition to the sponsoring organizations contributions were made by the Sportsmans Club, Gift Box, Wilds Variety Store and many anonymous citizens of Joshua Tree.

relish the hardwood alley sport have been journeying to Palm Springs several times a week to bowl. Others who are interested are asked to get in touch with any member of the Sportsmans Club, pronto.

The Personal Touch

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bode and family returned to Joshua Tree last week after a summer in Washington state.

The McCauslins, who recently opened their duplex on Sunburst Circle, will spend the Christmas holidays in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell will spend Christmas with the latter's brother, J. E. Mitchell, and family in North Hollywood.

The George Beards will entertain at a family dinner on Christmas. Mrs. Beard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Risch and her sister's family, the Joe Burches.

Weekending at LeOrra Courts were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Williams of Wilmington. Mr. Williams, a real estate broker, was enthusiastic about our desert and plans to return later for a longer stay.

Guests last week at Desertaire Lodge were Mr. and Mrs. Mort Lederer of Arcadia, and Stanley Smith and mother, Mrs. Hazel Smith, and Clarice of Whittier. The Smiths are greatly interested in life on the desert.

Mr. and Mrs. Venice Hoover and children will spend the holidays with Mr. Hoovers parents in Ontario.

The Roger Clarks and young sons will be in Long Beach for Christmas with Jeanettes folks.

For the Christmas holidays with the Gus Ojalas will be Mrs. Ojala's mother, Mrs. Laura White of Rock Springs, Wyoming and sister, Mrs. Orville Wallis and children, Danny and Laura Nell, of Laramie.

Gabrielle Rohrschach is to be with her daughter, Mrs. Lester Cole, and Mrs. James McCuen in Inglewood for several days this week.

Bob Fields has been laid up for a few days with a touch of the flu. He's anxious to get back to work on the Field's new home on Alta Vista.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Dickman of Newport Beach arrived last week for a holiday season on the desert. They will stay at LeOrra Courts. Mr. Dickman is a boat builder.

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Willey and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McMillen attended the Christmas Ball given by the 672 Composite Group, O.R.C., at the Officers Club, San Bernardino Air Base last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGee of the Townsite Company, will spend Christmas Day in South Gate.

The Hillard Laffertys are celebrating Christmas early — with a gleaming new Nash sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Enbom of Gardena were guests at Golden Tree Lodge last week. They drove out with Steve Moninger of the Townsite Company.

A quadruple celebration is in store for the Woodys—Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wood, to be formal. After a Christmas dinner in Joshua Tree with Mrs. Clella Hirdman and Miss Josephine Jackson they will hie to Los Angeles to be with their daughter, Mrs. J. E. Moore. Woodys celebrate their wedding anniversary on the 29th and Mr. and Mrs. Moores' anniversary is New Year's Day. Then they will see the Rose Bowl game.

Myra Coulter and Marilyn left Monday to spend holidays at the Hollywood Knickerbocker where Myra's son, Kenneth Davol will join them for Christmas.

Visiting Fred Breit is his brother Ernest of Alliance, Ohio, who will stay for several weeks. Ernest, a silver star veteran of the recent unpleasantness, is a painter and decorator. The brothers Breit will Christmas in Los Angeles.

The visit to the desert of the Misses Lulu and Hazel Emmons of Chicago was saddened by the sudden death on Wednesday, December 17th, of their invalid mother, Henrietta Emmons at the age of 88. They had planned to spend the winter here.

It was announced at the PTA meeting Tuesday night, December 16th that a doctor and nurse will be at the school on January 9th for the purpose of inoculating pupils against diphtheria, whooping cough and smallpox. This service is available also for children of pre-school age. Booster shots will also be given where needed.

Fifty children and adults enjoyed the films shown by Harlow Jones of 29 Palms. School vacation will be a long one this season; from December 19th to January 5th. The PTA milk distribution, it was reported, now costs only 5c per half pint since the 29 Palms Dairy has started supplying it.

Christmas cookies and sandwiches were served the group by Mesdames McNeill, Decker, Hover and Snyder.

By ANTOINETTE KIRCH

Dr. D. C. Williams read from the 1st Kings, 10th chapter and Isaiah chapter 9, verses 6 and 7.

Dr. Williams very beautifully told the Christmas story, a story old but ever new to brighten the hearts of the people.

The solo by Mrs. Kirch was dedicated to Mrs. Bertha Holmes who has been ill several weeks and cannot go to church. Mrs. Kirch sang
"The Birthday of a King" with Mrs. Way at the piano.
